

0 5 0 4 6 0 - 0 0 5 2

Zexing Gu Audrey

At the start of each answer to a question, write the question number in the box. / Avant de répondre à une question, veuillez écrire le numéro de la question que vous allez traiter dans la case prévue à cet effet. / Al comienzo de cada respuesta, escriba el número de pregunta en la casilla.

Example
Exemple
Ejemplo

27 2 7

Example
Exemple
Ejemplo

3 3

3

Oppression, whether it is from authoritarian or ethnic conflict, causes loss of people's life, agency, and even humanity. In Human Act, Han Kang underline the titles of novels or use italics explored the authoritarian control on several individuals during the Guangju Massacre. Palestine is a comics strip by Joe Sacco focused on Sacco's

Analyze in present tense

graphic novel experience as a journalist in Palestine that witnessed the Israel-Palestine conflict. Both texts explored oppression's effect on causing loss of here

body control through prisoner and loss of family members to accuse against dehumanizing oppression.

imprisonment

challenge

Both Human Act and Palestine vividly illustrated life of prisoners

the lives

under extreme oppression, yet with consequences of loss of human agency and dignity, while their narrative styles differ. In Human Act, although or however the author used a fragmented non-linear narrative to show traumatic

This section should either be developed more fully with specific textual examples or integrated into the introduction that disrupts the linear chronology

Please speak with me to explain, if needed.

Ideally you would have a third point - perhaps loss of security where you could focus on women and the loss of personal safety they specifically suffer. In Human Act → physical abuse & torture ch.3 Eun Sook seven Slaps are ch.5 Skinning ruler and rifle butt in cervix. In Palestine → pgs. 97-99. The Torture of Hanan memory, while Palestine applied a more linear approach to show constant desperation.

Indent →

In Human Act^s, the author ^{employed} ~~applied~~ vivid imagery ~~and~~ ~~to~~ to demonstrate fragmented, incontinuous memory of torture. ~~The~~ In the Prisoner

Chapter⁴, the first person perspective revealed the life of a political prisoner.

①

Kang uses symbolism of the "Pen jammed in to the same spot" ^{until the bone showed to} demonstrated deliberate torture by ^{as "watery discharge oozed"} the military, ~~with~~ ^{reinforcing} pain at the same spot further added to the sympathy of readers to feel the ^{prisoners} suffering. The name of the pen ^{Monami Birex} was especially mentioned, which implied the torture of using common items caused PTSD. The ^{detail of this} ~~extent~~ ^{and its usage} ~~which~~ pen thus demonstrated ^{vividly} how the authoritarian oppression ^{created} ~~formed~~ ~~the~~ trauma that can be invoked in daily life, where the right to ~~feel~~ ^{and feel} live normally was taken away. Furthermore, the imagery of "white amid the filth" to demonstrate the exposed bone created high contrast between color white and red. This not only inflicted horror to readers, but also showed how a person ~~was~~ was dehumanized into mere bones and flesh by the authoritarian oppression. ~~The~~ The OK, please disregard annotation on the previous page. diction ~~is~~ used in "oozed watery discharge and flesh" ~~for~~ as clinical symptom further implies the ripped-off ~~humanity~~ human emotion from the body. These ^{is} vivid imagery therefore created strong emotional shock to the reader with impression, simulating the traumatic memory flashback experienced by the prisoner. This simulation thus vividly demonstrated the consequence of ^{losing} control of body: the ^{loss} taken self-agency, the right to feel, and dissociation from one's own body.

→ Indent
Similar ^{to} ~~as~~ ^{recall perspective} ~~Palestine~~ took a more linear form in showing the torture of prisoner. Sacco applied uniformly sized panel and ~~black~~ ^{even} gutters systematic nature of the to show the ^{endlessness} and recurrent torture that the prisoner faced. The ^{heavy graphic weight} Black gutter and the use of grey hue rendered the suffocating atmosphere. ^{constant} The ^{sensory deprivation} suffocation and recurrentness thus ~~turn~~ turned time as a tool to ~~impose~~ ^{impose} torture. ~~where~~ ^{similar} to Similar to the pen in Human Acts, time ~~is~~

~~as a~~ ^{that} torture method ^{distorted} the prisoner's perception of ~~themselves~~ ^{time itself (or reality)} which

✓ This is evident in the hallucination of the prisoner seeing family members ^{disorients & disorients} him from ^{his} sense of self, thus ^{weakening} his confidence and resolve. dying. The ^{structure} simple language of " ... is dead " and its ^{repetition} ~~repeated~~ created a sense of ^{motionlessness} ~~death~~ and numbness, showing how the torture via time demolished one's rational perception. ~~The hallucination~~ Furthermore, through the use of ^{high} angle ^{shots}, the author showed the loss of agency. The top-down angle on the prisoner ~~showed~~ hinted prisoner as an object of 'powerlessness and weakness while the police officers were depicted by ^{low} bottom-up ^{angles} ^{shot}

~~the~~ show their authority. In this case, ^{the angle contrast} ~~the officer exhibited~~ thus demonstrated the mechanism of oppression ^{losing (use the key words of the question)} ~~in taking~~ away one's agency: the strong

^{? what do you mean?} ~~oppresses~~ ~~the weaker~~ from single side. Thus, through the use of imagery with

^{uniform} ~~panel size~~ panels, hallucination, and ^{various} angles, ~~scarcely~~ ^{illustrated} the timeless desperation and ~~showed~~ ^{good} how the ethnic oppression systematically ~~took away~~ ~~removes~~ one's agency to abandon his identity to achieve ethnic cleansing.

Therefore, both texts presented ^{how societal} ~~the~~ oppression causes loss of humanity, while ^{they / the authors} ~~the two's~~ used different narrative strategies. Human Act's ⑤ use of fragmented ^{action} impression ^{implies} ^{good} the extreme magnitude of torture and its consequence of ~~the~~ long lasting trauma, while Palestine's linear narrative to record the whole process ^{of the occupation} ^s illustrated the timeless desperation that oppression imposed to force loss of self-agency and dignity.

Candidate session number: / Numéro de session du candidat : / Número de convocatoria del alumno:

						-
--	--	--	--	--	--	---	--	--	--	--

Candidate name: / Nom du candidat : / Nombre del alumno:

Zhang (Richard) Gu	Andrey
--------------------	--------

At the start of each answer to a question, write the question number in the box. / Avant de répondre à une question, veuillez écrire le numéro de la question que vous allez traiter dans la case prévue à cet effet. / Al comienzo de cada respuesta, escriba el número de pregunta en la casilla.

--

Example
Exemple
Ejemplo

27

2	7
---	---

Example
Exemple
Ejemplo

3

	3
--	---

--

--	--

In addition to loss of body control, oppression leads to loss of family members suffered by individual.

Combine into one paragraph.

The authors both used maternal grief, mother's loss of her son, to express the desperation and extreme ~~survival~~ ^{or's} guilt, but with slight difference in focus.

--	--

In Human Act^s, the author used ~~the~~ subtle language in presenting mother's emotion after loss of ^{her} son. ^{In chapter 6,} The author illustrated the mother's action when ^{of Dong ho's mother taking off his} burying her own son. The ~~reaction~~ ^{action} to ~~took off the~~ ^{took off the} PE ~~suit~~ ^{suit} and ~~stitch~~ ^{putting} on the black winter suit of son's corpse was a parallelism to ^{the} mother's action to send a son to school. This parallelism thus ^{exhibits} ~~was~~ ^{exhibits} extreme grief of mother, who was sending the son to heaven instead of school. The tenderness in the care of son's corpse ~~further demonstrates~~, ~~shown from~~ detailed illustration of putting on socks and clothes, demonstrated mother's unwillingness and the maternal with soldiers' ~~dis~~ casual gesture: sitting on the machine, with cigarettes and even laughter. This indifference exhibited strong juxtaposition ~~but~~ with the mother, drawing readers' sympathy. ^{The} House as part of the family ^{is} taken away ^{due to the} ~~from the~~ oppression, ^{which} ~~therefor~~ further added to the ^{mother's} continuous grief. ~~The~~ Through the extensive use of a facial oppression and gesture, the author thus showed the powerlessness ~~of~~ of mother against the ^{societal systematic} oppression, when it ~~was~~ caused the loss of her family ~~parts~~ and home.

--	--

Therefore, ~~#~~ both texts explored maternal grief, ~~The~~ but the focus differs.

Human Acts used a more internalized authorial choice, where memory and subtleness

^{what do you mean?} in mental state were ~~not~~ illustrated vividly, to show the ^{enduring} standing existence of the mother

^{bonding} ~~and~~ relationship that cannot be broken by authoritarian oppression. Differently,

~~The~~ Palestine used a more journalistic tone ^{and primary source interviews} to show how inner struggle was externalised by continuous oppression, where the loss of family ^{their maternal and belonging's} ~~components~~ resulted in extreme hollowness and trauma was expressed via environment and bodily behavior.

To conclude, ~~the author~~ both Human Acts and Palestine focused on oppression as a cause of loss, and on the ^{long lasting} ~~traumatizing~~ consequence.

^{importance of the} ~~extent to which~~ ^{bond with their} children, and consequently the ^{loss of} their sons' grieves them. As unnamed ^{their lament} becomes universally

It is also interesting to note that neither of these mothers have individual names.

They are defined solely by their relationships to their sons/families, as the role of mothers. This identification shows the understood to all parents — and particularly mothers, who would empathize with the traumatic loss of their own children

Paper Two Rubric: Studies in Language and Literature SL / HL

A: Knowledge, understanding and interpretation		B: Analysis and evaluation		C: Focus and Organization		D: Language
0	The work does not reach a standard described by the descriptors below.	0	The work does not reach a standard described by the descriptors below.	0	The work does not reach a standard described by the descriptors below.	0	The work does not reach a standard described by the descriptors below.
1	There is little knowledge and understanding of the works in relation to the question.	1	The essay is descriptive and/or demonstrates little relevant analysis of textual features and/or the broader authorial choices.	1	There is little meaningful analysis of the similarities and/or differences between the two works.	1	The essay rarely focuses on the task. There are few connections between ideas.
2	There is some knowledge and understanding of the works in relation to the question.	2	The essay demonstrates some appropriate analysis of textual features and/or broader authorial choices but is reliant on description.	2	There is a superficial analysis of the similarities and/or differences between the two works.	2	The essay only sometimes focuses on the task, and treatment of the works may be unbalanced. There are some connections between ideas, but these are not always coherent.
3	There is satisfactory knowledge and understanding of the works and an interpretation of their implications in relation to the question.	3	The essay demonstrates a generally appropriate analysis of textual features and/or broader authorial choices.	3	There is an adequate analysis of the similarities and/or differences between the two works.	3	The essay maintains a focus on the task, despite some lapses; treatment of the works is mostly balanced. The development of ideas is mostly logical; ideas are generally connected in a cohesive manner.
4	There is good knowledge and understanding of the works and a sustained interpretation of their implications in relation to the question.	4	The essay demonstrates an appropriate and at times insightful analysis of textual features and/or broader authorial choices. There is a good evaluation of how such features and/or choices shape meaning.	4	There is a good analysis of the similarities and/or differences between the two works.	4	The essay maintains a mostly clear and sustained focus on the task; treatment of the works is balanced. The development of ideas is logical; ideas are cohesively connected.
5	There is perceptive knowledge and understanding of the works and a persuasive interpretation of their implications in relation to the question.	5	The essay demonstrates a consistently insightful and convincing analysis of textual features and/or broader authorial choices. There is a very good evaluation of how such features and/or choices contribute to meaning.	5	There is a very good analysis of the similarities and/or differences between the two works.	5	The essay maintains a clear and sustained focus on the task; treatment of the works is well-balanced. The development of ideas is logical and convincing; ideas are connected in a cogent manner.
5	Language is very clear, effective, carefully chosen and precise, with a high degree of accuracy in grammar, vocabulary and sentence construction; register and style are effective and appropriate to the task.	5	Language is clear and carefully chosen, with a good degree of accuracy in grammar, vocabulary and sentence construction; register and style are consistently appropriate to the task.	5	Language is very clear, effective, carefully chosen and precise, with a high degree of accuracy in grammar, vocabulary and sentence construction; register and style are effective and appropriate to the task.	5	Language is very clear, effective, carefully chosen and precise, with a high degree of accuracy in grammar, vocabulary and sentence construction; register and style are effective and appropriate to the task.

B1 Clarification for "and/or": The use of and/or recognizes that a candidate's choice of literary works may be better suited for the analysis of textual features, broader authorial choices, or a combination of the two. Marks must be awarded based on the overall quality of the analysis and the extent to which students evaluate Answer one question. Compare and/or contrast two of the literary works you have studied.

1. How and to what effect have two works you have studied explore the role of memory and its relationship to truth?
2. How and to what effect do authors of two works you have studied explore the struggle for equity?
3. How do two of the works you have studied address the theme of loss and/or sacrifice and the consequences of this?
4. How do two works you have studied explore the role of family as a source of support and/or conflict?

1. ~~prison~~ prisoner: loss of body control → ^{conseq} loss of agency/dignity = recall, fragment vs linear dehumanize

2. mother: loss of son, maternal grief → ~~loss of~~ hopelessness bury put off track, off PE. Put on tracksuit sightline = ambiguous existence & continuum uncertainty ~~thread~~ subtle/internal vs external/journalistic hollowness / indifference / powerlessness

Aim to add one more point

3.